A Dye to Die for....

Pete Dye is one of the most recognized and controversial golf course designers ever to lay out a course. His island green at the 17th of TPC Sawgrass perhaps afforded him the most visibility upon its debut in 1982. He will be enshrined into the World Golf Hall of Fame later this month under the Lifetime Achievement criteria. Known for his signature use of railroad ties in course design, Dye becomes only the fifth designer to make it into the Hall. His Sawgrass course is one of my personal favorites, along with PGA West Stadium and Amelia Island. All of these gems are harder than the average, but some are absolutely "diabolical" which seems to be the adjective most tied to Pete Dye. Often the trouble is obvious as with the island green at Sawgrass, or the massively deep bunker at PGW West. But, frequently the subtle trickery catches you unaware when a seemingly good shot becomes a severely punished one! Fortunately you don't have to travel far to try one of his designs. Nearby in Maryland are Bulle Rock (a real gem of a course!), Rum Pointe, Harbourtowne, and PB Dye near Frederick. Virginia offers the Gauntlet (with 12 of 14 blind tee shots!), Kingsmill, and Virginia Oaks (a wonderful course with an island green and those subtle hazards I mentioned). Put some Dye in your golf season this year. -Ayce

Heard at the Scramble (Part 3)

Playing in nearly 100 scrambles annually, we noticed that certain phrases resound much like “you da man” on TV. For the next few weeks the newsletter will enumerate and editorialize some of the ones you have or will hear this season.

“Sorry guys”... This has to be one on my least favorites. Unfortunately the offender is always a recidivist. If you hear it from a partner, you’ll hear it again, and again. It’s as though they are expected to hit great shots and they have somehow let down their Ryder Cup partners.

Hey, this is social, charity scramble. We’re hear to have fun so stop apologizing for something you can’t do. Let your stockbroker do that with your investments and don’t be to quick to tell either “It’s OK.” as that only rewards bad behavior, thus assuring more. Say you are sorry if you spill a drink but forget the humbling grumbling about hitting a ball with a stick!

Hilltop’s US Open Contest

Back again this year is the Annual US Open Pool, the way the contest works is simple. You pick the top 5 finishers and their total score for the entire event. The LPGA Championship at Bulle Rock

Don't miss Suzann Pettersen, defending champion of the McDonald's LPGA Championship, and the top women golfers in the world, including Lorena Ochoa, Annika Sorenstam, Se Ri Pak, Christie Kerr, Morgan Pressel and Paula Creamer at the LPGA McDonald's Championship at Bulle Rock this weekend.

The 2008 Championship offers the potential for unparalleled competition as Pettersen stands as the #3 player in the world, third only behind Lorena Ochoa and Annika Sorenstam in the Rolex Rankings. She earned this position as a result of her triumphant 2007 season, which included 6 other Top-10 finishes, most notably winning the Michelob Ultra Open at Kingsmill and a T2 finish at the Kraft Nabisco Championship. Carroll Valley Resort - Fairfield, PA

The Carroll Valley Resort's hotel overlooks the first of two 18-hole championship courses. This course, designed by Ault & Clark, offers golfers many exciting challenges as it winds its way over picture-perfect rolling hills and around giant trees, lake, and bunkers. A very popular course!

2 for 1 Greens Fee 18 Holes, Regular rates only. (M-Fri Anytime, Weekends & Holidays after 12pm) Cart required. Valid 4x in 2008. And, Free Greens Fee on Weekday Replays. Cart required. Valid unlimited times in 2008.*

Swan Point Yacht & Country Club - Swan Point, MD

The US Golf Pass savings on the weekends are terrific for afternoon players. You play an $80 course for nearly half, and this is an upscale course. It reminds us of Myrtle Beach with the forced carries and target style demands. A nice drive from the DC beltway rewards you with a course resembling the 'low country'.

$45 Players Fee (M-TH Anytime, Fri-Sun & Holidays after 12pm) Cart included. Valid unlimited times in 2008.*

Jackson's Chase At Pine Hills Golf Club - Middletown, VA

Take a weekday jaunt just under an hour from the DC beltway to a world away from the city. Jackson's Chase has a small town country club feel which adds to the charm of an already solid track. At $20 for cart and greens fee during the week you have an unbeatable deal for 18 holes on a regulation course. A number of other Warren County courses are nearby, so maybe 36 are in order?

One Free Round (Mon - Fri, Anytime). Cart required (fee $20). Valid 4x in 2008.*

* These are not coupons. Offers are valid with a 2008 U.S. Golf Pass. Order yours at www.usgolfpass.com
