

Waggle.com Best Balls are Back

We were just at Maryland National for a wonderful (slightly rain delayed) day of golf. It was a close match but Russ McLelland/Scott Bloyer edged out team Dudek/Easterday. Both shot 79 but and we had to go to the cards. Scores ranged from 79 up to 90 and all had a good time.

Upcoming events... Saturday August 15th at Patuxent Greens and Sunday August 23rd at Compass Pointe. You get to play the courses at a discount, enjoy a little competition (everybody wins a prize), and each player will receive a Waggle.com gift bag. Details and registration at www.waggleproshop.com/tournaments.html

Win/Win at Lee's Hill by Ayce

First you win by selecting Lee's Hill (conveniently located off I-95 in Fredericksburg) for your golf. The course is in good shape for early August, and apparently golfers are aware of the value in golfing this favorite layout as the parking lot was filled on a recent visit.

And then you can win cash as well. That's right, the course is now equipped with the Charitee Hole-In-One Monitoring system to reward your good shot on the par 3 hole #7.

As you check in for golf at Lee's Hill, a large electronic sign shows the amount you win for an ace on hole number seven, and the amount you win for a shot within the flagstick! Two ways to win on one hole, you say? Wait there's more as Billy Mays would say. It costs just $5 to play and you will receive a free drink or $5 off on your next visit, making it a free shot at a couple of nice prizes. If that were not enough, a portion of the fee goes to Birdies for the Brave which supports troops injured during combat. Women shoot from the red tees and men from any other tee of their choice, so the chances to win are real. When you sign up to play as you check-in, you are given a code to punch in on a machine at the tee, much like a car wash. A camera system monitors all activity on the hole so no cheating is allowed.

The amiable owner/operators of Lee's Hill are anxiously awaiting their first ace, so get there and help them out. BTW the jackpots are progressive and it was in the thousands this week. You gotta play to win - good luck!
